

SermonIndex Announcements :: Documentary with Greg Gordon, Paul Washer, and others in it.

Documentary with Greg Gordon, Paul Washer, and others in it. - posted by sermonindex, on: 2010/2/28 18:40

Saints,

I wanted to let you know there is a documentary coming out on Open Air Evangelism called: Go. Stand. Speak. it was filmed mostly during the revival conference in Ireland last year and I was privileged to be considered for part of the film. There is a great need for many more open air preachers to be called out to the world as their parish. All authority has been given! You can pre-order the video now.

Website:
(<http://www.gostandspeak.com/>) <http://www.gostandspeak.com/>

Watch a video preview on youtube:
(http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Bnv_CbLPwV4) http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Bnv_CbLPwV4

Re: Documentary with Greg Gordon, Paul Washer, and others in it. - posted by sermonindex, on: 2010/3/25 19:38

Saints,

I just wanted to bring this again to your attention. The video is available on pre-order and there are some more great promo clips for it. May it truly spur us on to getting out there to share the gospel.

Re: - posted by mguldner (), on: 2010/3/25 20:18

Brother Greg,

I have seen a lot of people do street evangelism yelling at the top of their lungs the wrong way does this, video show the correct way?

Re: - posted by KingJimmy (), on: 2010/3/25 20:18

Ordered :-)

Re: - posted by sermonindex, on: 2010/3/25 20:23

Quote:
-----I have seen a lot of people do street evangelism yelling at the top of their lungs the wrong way does this, video show the correct way?

I believe there is a great balance in this video brother. It warns against much excessiveness but also does not demonize some who preach as others would. Finney, Torrey, Moody, Wesley, Whitfield, Ravenhill, Spurgeon, Sunday, Apostle Paul, and preachers of "all" generations preached open air sermons.

If you see someone "ranting" without a message they are not preaching the gospel. The gospel is a clear, concise, but illustrative message. My exhortation is preach the gospel to a dying world, and weep over the dying world first.

Re: - posted by KingJimmy (), on: 2010/3/25 20:28

Amen brother Greg. Nothing grieves my heart more than to come across a street preacher who is just making a rant against sin, and teaching some sort of morality, and think he is somehow preaching the gospel message. I've come across very few who give a clear picture of Christ crucified, risen, and coming again soon, and how it is somebody can come to a saving knowledge of Christ. They get caught up in a lot of other stuff, stuff that is not the gospel message.

Re: - posted by mguldner (), on: 2010/3/25 20:29

That is awesome I just watched a YouTube video and it was just a man yelling and people were mocking him and getting really angry with him. His message was disorganized and it seemed he said the same things over and over. I love your passion and I agree Whitefield wept over the people a powerful testimony and witness for the listeners, I have been praying that God give me a tender heart for the Lost that I may weep. I have preached many times and tears have welled up in my eyes because the Holy Spirit was moving through me and breaking my heart.

I will probably be ordering this because I believe that if I don't go forth and preach out in the streets it will at least benefit me in my exhortation to the congregation I attend.

God Bless,
Matthew

Re: - posted by KingJimmy (), on: 2010/3/25 20:34

If you want to see what street evangelism should not be like, watch Jed Smock. If you want to see what it should be like, watch Paul Washer.

Re: - posted by mguldner (), on: 2010/3/25 20:40

Thanks! I will definitely keep my eyes open, but right now my home computer is down and not working properly I hope to get it fixed here shortly but I will check those things out when it's fixed.

God Bless,
Matthew

Re: - posted by PaulWest (), on: 2010/3/25 20:47

Quote:
-----If you want to see what street evangelism should not be like, watch Jed Smock. If you want to see what it should be like, watch Paul Washer.

Above all, study Whitefield's tearful open-air pleadings. It's the best example we have outside of Holy Scripture in the realm of raw evangelism.

Re: - posted by sermonindex, on: 2010/3/25 20:50

Quote:
-----Above all, study Whitefield's tearful open-air pleadings.

Amen. I believe open air "pleading" is more needed than "preaching". Very good point dear brother.

Re: - posted by mguldner (), on: 2010/3/25 21:21

Just listened to Brother Paul Washer preach open-air big thumbs UP!! That is how I hope to preach everytime.

God lead me through what I think is the pattern He wishes to use at least for me it worked.

He first awakened my heart that something was wrong inside of me. I seeked God's face on the matter to reveal what was wrong with me and to expose my heart.

Three days passed everyday God bringing me to tears and on the third night God exposed my wicked heart and showed me His Holiness.

I was utterly broken and terrified because the next day God revealed to me His Justice, not only His Justice but His Good Holy Justice. This again didn't bring comfort to my heart so I continued to pray and seek God's face. Then I went to the Onething conference in KC and the holy spirit spoke to me and said I am Just and I am Holy but Mercy Triumphs over Justice and if you repent I show you Mercy.

I assure you I was overjoyed to find His Mercy and know it as a Hell deserving SINNER. I was still troubled though because there was another attribute that I lacked and that was His Unfailing Love. He said the next day I not only want to show a contrite heart Mercy but I LOVE IT and I love you. I was filled with the Joy of the Lord.

I present: A Holy God
A Just God
A Good God
A God with Justified Wrath
A God of Mercy and Grace
A God of Love

Its in this order I present and will probably continue to present the gospel.

I give 100% credit to God but if it wasn't for a man of God preaching a FULL Gospel message I don't think I ever would have been awakened to my sin and my wicked heart. God is definitely using Paul Washer and ANYONE preaching a full gospel. So I encourage you Saints to KEEP it up you never know when it will touch the heart of a wicked sinner like me. I was a Pharisee that God transformed into a Child of God by His grace. And this is my testimony and I love it for what it is nor am I ashamed of it.

Thanks For Sharing I desire to present the gospel and not shout Obsenities at people.

Re: - posted by sermonindex, on: 2010/3/26 1:15

Quote:
-----Just listened to Brother Paul Washer preach open-air big thumbs UP!! That is how I hope to preach everytime.

Amen. His preaching is here that people can watch:

Paul Washer Open Air Preaching in Lima

(<http://www.sermonindex.net/modules/myvideo/photo.php?lid987>) <http://www.sermonindex.net/modules/myvideo/photo.php?lid=987>

Re: - posted by KingJimmy (), on: 2010/3/26 3:54

Quote:

Thanks For Sharing I desire to present the gospel and not shout Obsenities at people.

Amen. Sadly, many are deceived and think because they shout obscenities, and draw an angry crowd that is ready to st one them, that they are preaching the gospel. Sadly, many are deceived and think they drop controversial statements that do likewise, that they are preaching the gospel. But I've found thus far, that if you treat your audience with respect and love, they'll often listen to you in a quiet and attentive manner.

When I was preaching open-air this week for 3 days at UNC Charlotte, the only angry hecklers I had were a group of Muslim students who shouted me down once. But what did they shout me down over? I preached Jesus Christ was crucified and is the Son of God. That didn't sit well with them. I didn't get shout down because I preached against homosexuality or other major cultural sins... though I did preach against those things.

But if you come with a broken and gentle spirit, instead of a fleshly spirit that screams self, people will often listen to you and actually hear what you are saying, even if you preach a stern message about a just and holy God, who will punish the unrighteous one day in hell everlasting. Whatever you preach, make sure what you preach is the Good News, and is a message that people can actually believe and have hope in.

Anybody can draw an angry crowd by shouting, "God hates fags!" And one can be deceived by such a mob that they must be a preacher of righteousness, because everybody is ready to kill you. Frankly, when I hear somebody preaching like this, even though I am righteous, I am ready to kill that street preacher too. I wouldn't mind "going Old Testament" on a few of these false evangelists.

As Peter said, we are called to proclaim the "excellencies" of Him who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light. When we proclaim the richness of Christ, people will naturally see their poverty, and drawing to Him declare, "Woe is me, I am undone!"

Re: - posted by osandoval, on: 2010/3/26 9:22

semonindex said:

Quote:

-----My exhortation is preach the gospel to a dying world, and weep over the dying world first.

Amen. The Lord will give us His broken heart over this dying world. On many occasions when I've preached on Hell I have had tears swell up and a weeping voice. Sinners will know that you truly believe what you are preaching, and that you truly care for them when they see that.