Topics: "Indwelling of the Holy Spirit", "Divine Power"

Description

A.B. Simpson emphasizes the transformative power of the Holy Spirit in achieving union with God, which leads to an inheritance of blessings and prosperity in health and spirit. He explains that as we allow God's power to work within us, we become a source of attraction for those seeking hope and healing. Simpson encourages believers to recognize and embrace the indwelling glory of Christ, which empowers them to live fully and glorify God. The sermon highlights the importance of internal spiritual strength as the foundation for external blessings.

Transcript

When we reach the place of union with God through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, we come into the inheritance of external blessing and enter upon the land of our possession. Then our health and physical strength come to us through the power of our interior life. Then the prayer is fulfilled that we shall be in health and prosper as our soul prospers. Then, with the kingdom of God and His righteousness within us all things are added unto us. God's external working always keeps pace with the power that works in us. When God is enthroned in a human soul, the devil and the world soon find it out. We do not need to advertise our power.

Jesus could not be hid, and a soul filled with divine power and purity should become the center of attraction to hungry hearts and Suffering lives.

Let us receive Him and recognize Him in His indwelling glory, and then will we appropriate all that it means for our life in all its fullness. Lord, give me the "hiding of thy power," and let Christ be glorified in me.
