

The Cup of Damnation and Salvation

by Anne Dutton

God's infinite love for us is demonstrated through Christ's sacrifice, which provides a way for our salvation.

Scripture: John 3:16, Romans 5:8, 2 Corinthians 5:21, Ephesians 2:8, 1 Peter 2:24

Topics: "Divine Salvation", "Eternal Redemption"

Description

Anne Dutton preaches about the immense love of God the Father towards humanity, highlighting how Christ took on the curse and wrath that we deserved, allowing us to receive salvation instead. She emphasizes the incredible sacrifice of Jesus in taking our punishment upon Himself so that we could be saved from eternal damnation and be offered the gift of salvation through Him.

Transcript

Dear Sir,

If God was to deal with me according to my deserts, if He was to send me as accursed into everlasting fire prepared for the Devil and his angels, He would be a most holy and righteous God therein. But such was the infinite love of the Father to us, that He put the cup of damnation, of curse and wrath, into Christ's hand, and through His drinking it up for us, He puts the cup of salvation into ours!
