

Preach It Practically

by Arthur Vess

Preachers should preach in simple form, for men, and focus on glorifying God.

Scripture: Proverbs 15:2, 1 Corinthians 2:1, Colossians 4:6, 1 Peter 4:11

Topics: "Effective Preaching", "Humility In Ministry"

Description

Arthur Vess emphasizes the importance of simplicity in preaching, urging preachers to convey profound truths in straightforward language that all can grasp. He highlights the need to glorify God alone and not boast in personal knowledge or wisdom. Vess encourages humility and a focus on practical, understandable messages that uplift and edify listeners.

Transcript

Preach it practically, and in a simple form, so that "the wayfaring man, though he be a fool may not err therein." Preach it for men, not angels. Put it down where all can understand and get it, but where none can trample it. A camp president said to a camp evangelist, "Your manners and language are so simple, but you had not spoken long until I saw that you had a trained mind." Great preachers express great truths in simple words, but little preachers express little thoughts in big words. Never brag on your own knowledge, wisdom, experience, etc. Glorify God only!
