

Baptism Is Right, Like Christ Taught It.

by Ausbund

Baptism is a symbol of Christ's death and a means of receiving grace and washing away our sins.

Scripture: Matthew 3:13, Acts 22:16, Romans 6:3, Colossians 2:12, 1 Peter 3:21

Topics: "Baptism", "Salvation"

Description

Jorg Wagner preaches about the importance of baptism as taught by Christ, emphasizing that when the order of baptism is not perverted, it symbolizes His bitter death. He explains that baptism represents the washing away of our sins and the reception of grace through this act.

Transcript

Baptism is right, like Christ taught it. If the order of baptism is not perverted, it symbolizes his bitter death. Baptism is the washing away of our sins through which we receive grace.³⁷

-- Jorg Wagner, burned at the state in Munchen, Bavaria in 1527, Ausbund, 11:9
