

The Christian Commune Is Made Clean Through the Blood of Christ

by Ausbund

The Christian commune is cleansed and protected from death through the blood of Christ and the remembrance of him in the nighttime meal.

Scripture: Titus 3:5

Topics: "Spiritual Renewal", "Christ's Sacrifice"

Description

Hans Betz preaches about the cleansing power of Christ's blood for the Christian commune, emphasizing the spiritual renewal symbolized by the 'Wasserbad' or water bath through the Holy Spirit. He highlights the importance of following Christ's example of the nighttime meal of bread and wine, reserved for the sinless commune, as a way to avoid spiritual death and remain connected to Christ.

Transcript

The Christian commune is made clean through the blood of Christ. Jesus bears her again in the Wasserbad (water bath) through his Spirit.

Mark the counsel of God: Christ has set the pattern for a nighttime meal of bread and wine for his commune -- the commune that keeps itself from sin. If she eats the nighttime meal in remembrance of him, death will not overtake her.

-- Hans Betz, from the dungeon of the castle at Passau, Ausbund, 92:15
