

The Proud World Wants to Be Christian Too.

by Ausbund

The world rejects the idea of suffering for redemption, but true salvation requires repentance and separation from the world.

Scripture: Mark 8:38, Luke 13:3, 1 Corinthians 1:18, 2 Corinthians 6:17

Topics: "True Repentance", "Eternal Suffering"

Description

Ausbund preaches a powerful message about the world's desire to be Christian while being ashamed of the cross and unwilling to embrace suffering. The preacher highlights the blindness of the world in rejecting the redemptive sufferings of Christ and warns of the consequences of faith without true repentance. The call to repentance is clear: to avoid eternal suffering, one must separate from the world and turn away from sin.

Transcript

The proud world wants to be Christian too. But the world is ashamed of the cross. The world says: No. That cannot be. Why should we suffer if the sufferings of Christ were enough to redeem us from our sins? Oh blind world, you will be put to shame! Your faith will not save you! Repent! If you do not want to suffer forever, come out from among the world and sin no more!

-- Ausbund, 79:10
