by Bakht Singh

Bakht Singh's funeral was a celebration of his life and legacy, with thousands gathering to pay respects and honor his commitment to God's glory.

Duration: 6:00

Scripture: Romans 14:11

Topics: "Gods Sovereignty", "Unity In Christ"

Description

This sermon reflects on the massive turnout at the funeral of brother Bucksing, where people from various countries and religions gathered to pay their respects. It emphasizes the unity and respect shown across different faiths, breaking religious traditions. The message echoes brother Bucksing's teaching that only God is worthy of adoration and glory, highlighting the importance of surrendering to God's will and allowing Him to work in our lives.

Transcript

Thousands from all over flocked to see the mortal remains of the beloved brother Bucksing. The body was kept in the Hebron Church. People came from different parts of India and abroad.

Bucksing's followers from America, Australia, Gulf, Nepal, Bhutan and Sri Lanka paid tributes to the great leader. Christian leaders from Baptist, Lutheran, Pentecostal, Church of South India, Catholics and independent churches attended the funeral. Breaking religious traditions, non-Christians like Hindus, Sikh community and Muslims walked along the funeral procession.

It was estimated that around 600,000 people paid their last respects to the departed soul. People who came from outstation were lodged at the Church Hebron. No flowers were placed on the coffin and there was no incense either.

As brother Bucksing preached, it's only God who is worthy of all adoration and glory. I am the clay, mold me and make me after thy will. While I am waiting, yield and steal.

Have thine own way, Lord, love thine own way. Cold am I being at thy feet. Filled with thy Spirit, still thou shalt see.

Thy strength will always be in me. Have thine own way, Lord, love thine own way. Search me and find me, Master, today.

Whiter than snow, Lord, watch me just now, as in thy presence.
