Transcript

When you have come again, this is what life, the spirit of life, and you are born again. So your relationship with Bhagavad-gita is no less than that, that we can come hundred percent So let me be affectionate to you, respectful to you. Please help me in the name of the Bhagavad-gita.

We pray to God with a full motion, full arm, as said in the Bhagavad-gita. You have done a mission for which you have done us proud. I can lay my head everywhere and say that I am the younger brother.

This very fact, this very matter of life, of belonging to somebody who has done you the same, First of all, please, first of all, please, please bless me with the spirit of the Bhagavad-gita. I am Arjuna, I know, I am something that is very beautiful. I can lay my head everywhere and say that I am the younger brother.

This very matter of life, of belonging to somebody who has done you the same, I can lay my head everywhere and say that I am the younger brother. Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, Christian friends, We are nearly less than a thousand graces of worship there. We worship the Lord, worship and break bread and teach the world according to New Testament practice.

We thank the Lord for everything. We thank the Lord for the majesty of His grace. On the basis of the Lord and the grace of His mercy, we ask the Lord to bless us with the spirit of the Bhagavad-gita.

We thank the Lord for everything.
