

Coming Back To Preaching Christ Crucified

by Brad Whitt

This sermon emphasizes the dangers of apathy and indifference in the Christian life, highlighting how they can dull our senses, darken our eyes, and desensitize our hearts. It warns against losing sight of Jesus Christ crucified and calls for a revival where Jesus is not just a concept but the exalted King of kings and Lord of lords, the foundation of our faith.

Scripture: Hebrews 12:2, Colossians 1:18, Revelation 19:16, 1 Corinthians 1:23, Ephesians 4:18

Topics: "Apathy in Faith", "Reviving Our Focus on Christ"

Transcript

The ivy branches of apathy and indifference, they have dulled our senses, they have darkened our eyes, they have desensitized our hearts. And you can mark it down that when a Christian in a class or a church even begins to focus on we, it's because they've lost sight of Jesus Christ crucified. When revival comes, Jesus won't just be a word in our songs and he won't even be just a character in our children's church.

He will be exclaimed and embraced and exalted as the King of kings, the Lord of lords, the founder and the foundation of our faith, the church, the author and the finisher of our faith.
