

Jeremiah 32:6

by Chuck Smith

God communicates with us in various ways, and we must learn to discern and confirm what we receive to understand His will.

Scripture: Psalm 19:1

Topics: "Discernment", "Hearing God's Voice"

Description

Chuck Smith emphasizes the various ways God communicates with us, including through nature, dreams, visions, and His Word. He explains the importance of discerning God's voice amidst the noise of life, highlighting that the Spirit bears witness with our spirit. Smith encourages believers to seek confirmation and observe if prophecies come to pass as a means of validating God's messages. The sermon underscores the reasonableness of God speaking to humanity and the necessity of being attuned to His communication.
