

Zechariah 12:10

by Chuck Smith

Chuck Smith's sermon on Zechariah 12:10 emphasizes God's promise of a better day, salvation through looking to Jesus, and the importance of repentance.

Scripture: Psalm 22:16, Zechariah 12:10, John 19:37, Romans 10:9

Topics: "Prophecy", "Salvation"

Description

Chuck Smith emphasizes the prophetic message of Zechariah 12:10, highlighting the promise of a better day when the Lord will reign and pour out His grace upon the house of David. He discusses the historical oppression of the Jewish people and the significance of their future recognition of Jesus as the Messiah, which will lead to repentance and a transformative relationship with God. The sermon underscores the importance of looking to Jesus for salvation, which is a work of the Spirit and requires personal repentance and acceptance of Christ as King.

Transcript

"IN THAT DAY"

Intro: The story of man has been a sad tragedy of failure As we look at the world today, we see how man has failed to learn any lessons from history. Lust and pride still create wars.

I. THE BIBLE POINTS US TO A BETTER DAY.

A. Zechariah, beginning here in chapter 12 and continuing to 14, points to the light at the end of the tunnel.

1. A better day is coming.

a. The Lord is coming to reign as king over the whole earth.

b. God's mercy and grace will be poured out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

c. There shall be annual tours to Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles, and worship the Lord.

II. GOD'S SPECIAL PROMISES TO HOUSE OF DAVID.

A. Pour out His Spirit of grace and supplication.

1. The Jewish people have been an oppressed people.

a. History is filled with atrocities directed at them

b. God had warned them that these things would happen to them if they rejected Him.

2. The day is coming when things are going to change for
them.

B. "They shall look on Me whom they have pierced."

1. In Psalm 22 it was predicted, "They pierced My hands and My feet."

2. Their looking is in acceptance and recognition.

a. The veil that has been over their eyes will be lifted.

b. They will recognize the mistake they made.

c. They will receive Jesus as their Messiah.

3. Their looking will bring repentance.

a. "They shall mourn for Him."

b. As one would mourn for a firstborn son that was killed.

C. "The Lord will open to them a fountain for sin and uncleanness."

1. Their recognition, repentance and receiving of Jesus as their Messiah will usher in a new age.

III. SALVATION.

A. It comes as a work of God's Spirit.

B. It comes by looking to Jesus.

C. It comes by repentance.

D. It comes by making Him the king of your life.

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/chuck-smith/zechariah-1210/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net