

All That Call Upon God

by Clement of Rome

The sermon emphasizes the importance of calling upon God's Name to receive the blessings of faith, fear, peace, patience, long-suffering, self-control, purity, and sobriety.

Scripture: Hebrews 4:14

Topics: "Gods Sovereignty", "Christian Living"

Description

Clement of Rome delivers a powerful sermon invoking God's sovereignty and the call for believers to exhibit qualities such as faith, fear, peace, patience, long-suffering, self-control, purity, and sobriety. He emphasizes the importance of living a life that is pleasing to God through Jesus Christ, our High Priest and Protector, offering glory, majesty, power, and honor to Him both now and forevermore.

Transcript

May God, who sees all things, and who is the Ruler of all spirits and the Lord of all flesh -- who chose our Lord Jesus Christ and us through Him to be a peculiar people -- grant to every soul that calls upon His glorious and holy Name, faith, fear, peace, patience, long-suffering, self-control, purity, and sobriety, to the well-pleasing of His Name, through our High Priest and Protector, Jesus Christ, by whom be to Him glory, and majesty, and power, and honour, both now and for evermore. Amen.
