Transcript

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake the one bread. Okay, I've been meditating on this passage this week. Where he says, this bread that we take, this cup that we bless.

Okay, key word, we, this cup that we bless. This is such a fascinating truth. I just want to share with you, and I hope it's not old to you, but this morning, God in heaven wants, okay, wants, he desires, God sitting on a stone, Almighty God who spoke the earth into existence.

I hope this is still great news to you. He wants to commune with us. Key word, us.

Not you, yes you, but even more so us. That's why the church comes together. This is God's desire.

Now, I came here, I was here like 7 a.m. God and I were communing together, just in this room. He and I, that was good. He liked it, I liked it, but what he wants more, when I studied the New Testament, is he wants us.

He wants us united as one, coming before the body and blood of the Lord, and he wants to commune with us in a special way.
