

Be Low

by George Fox

George Fox encourages listeners to dwell in the life of God, walk in the Light of Christ, and submit to one another in humility.

Scripture: Matthew 5:13, Ephesians 5:21, Philippians 4:8, 1 Peter 5:6

Topics: "Humility", "Spiritual Growth"

Description

George Fox preaches about the importance of humility, urging believers to stay low in the life of God and be the salt and light of the world to glorify God. He emphasizes walking in the light of Christ, which justifies and protects believers from condemnation. Fox encourages prayer for dominion in God's power and submission to one another in the fear of God, staying focused on the good to overcome evil with the help of the Lord.

Transcript

ALL Friends, be Low, and in the Life of God dwell, to keep you Low. Ye are the Salt of the Earth, to make it savoury unto God: Ye are the Light of the World. Therefore walk in the Light of Christ, whose Light doth Justifie you, who then shall condemn you? Therefore in that dwell, which doth Condemn all the Evil in the World.

And all Friends every where, pray to the Lord to give you Dominion over all, and that in his Power, and Life, and Seed, ye may live and reign.

And all Friends, submit your selves one to another, in the Fear of God, and be one with the Witness of God in all, and look at that, and that will keep you down from looking at the Bad; but looking at the Good, keepeth your Minds over the Bad, with the Lord. G.F.
