

(clip) Report on the Asbury Revival

by Greg Gordon

This sermon focuses on the continuous and unceasing worship of God, exemplified by the song 'Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty' and the powerful experience of singing 'Worthy is the Lamb' for an hour without stopping. It also highlights the immense joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, emphasizing the celebration and praise that erupts among the angels. The video showcases the vibrant and joyful response in a community like Asbury when individuals come to the Lord, with people jumping and celebrating in a lively manner.

Scripture: Revelation 4:8, Revelation 5:12, Luke 15:7, Psalm 149:3, Psalm 100:1

Topics: "Continuous Worship", "Joy in Repentance"

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, continually, never stopping, and never stopping worship. And in a service three days ago, at the end of a five or six hour service, they let out in a song, Worthy is the Lamb, a short chorus, it did not stop for one hour. Every time the worship band tried to stop it, the people kept going, and for one hour they sang Worthy is the Lamb, it was like heaven on earth, and we're going to play a part of that now.

And a second video, just we're going to share before I close here. We've all read the passage, Luke 15, 7, in the same way there is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over 99 who are righteous and have not strayed away. And there's the angels in heaven just erupting in praise when someone truly comes to the Lord and repents.

And here's a second video. This is what happens in Asbury, every time someone comes to the Lord, and there's many coming to the Lord, so you can. People are jumping too, bouncing, we call it, it was a Baptist pastor, Dan Beiser actually came here and he was watching in the back, and he texted me and said, they're bouncing, brother.

And I replied back, brother, are you going to bounce too?
