

Hosanna to the Royal Son

by Isaac Watts

The sermon 'Hosanna to the Royal Son' celebrates Jesus Christ as the divine and human son of David, calling believers to respond with praise and worship.

Scripture: Matthew 21:9, Luke 19:40, John 1:1, Philippians 2:6

Topics: "Divine Nature", "Christology"

Description

Isaac Watts preaches about the royal son of David, emphasizing the dual nature and divine essence of Jesus Christ. He highlights the unity of eternity and time in the name of Immanuel, the root and offspring of David. Watts encourages the congregation to welcome Christ with praises and hosannas, warning against refusing to acknowledge Him to avoid even nature itself praising Him.

Transcript

Hosanna to the royal son

Of David's ancient line!

His natures two, his person one,

Mysterious and divine.

The root of David, here we find,

And offspring, are the same:

Eternity and time are joined

In our Immanuel's name.

Blest he that comes to wretched man

With peaceful news from Heaven!

Hosannas, of the highest strain,

To Christ the Lord be given.

Let mortals ne'er refuse to take
The Hosanna on their tongues,
Lest rocks and stones should rise and break
Their silence into songs.
