It makes you think about Hebrews 5. By this time, you ought to be teachers. Right? I mean, you could in some ways say by this time, you ought to have read the whole Bible. You've ought to have had time to really read the Scriptures.

I remember coming to this church and there was a Tuesday Bible study and Tim looked out and he said, who here has read the whole Bible? And he said, raise your hands. I couldn't raise my hand. Most of the guys there couldn't raise their hand.

But that wasn't public shaming 101. It was trying to motivate you. Go home and get in this book.

Not as some public thing. Not as something to check a box that you've read the whole Bible. But know God.
