

February 17. 1678. the Interpretation of the Dream.

by Jane Lead

---

Jane Lead's sermon emphasizes the protection against evil spirits through divine love and the importance of spiritual vigilance.

Scripture: Psalm 91:11, Ephesians 6:12, James 4:7, 1 Peter 5:8, 1 John 4:4

Topics: "Spiritual Warfare", "Divine Protection"

---

Description

Jane Lead preaches about the presence of pernicious spirits that seek to kill, destroy, bind, and afflict, but reassures that the Lord sends His angels to protect and prevent harm to those who are targeted. She emphasizes the importance of staying within the Circle-Light of God's protection, where the anointing oil shields against any poisonous attacks from dark forces. Jane Lead encourages a deep connection to the love of the Bridegroom, which empowers believers to uphold their vows and resist the schemes of darkness, ensuring that the enemy, Apollyon, cannot infiltrate their inner sanctuary.

---

Transcript

This Morning as I was considering of the former strange Creatures rising out of the Pit, which in the Magia was shewn me, and hereby was further given me to know, that these were most pernicious Spirits, raised up by some awakening Calls, from ireful revengeful Spirits, whether in Flesh or out, that might make appeals to divine Justice, all which are ready to kill, and destroy, to bind and afflict. But the Lord this day, hath shewn me, that he did send his Angels to stop all these in their way; so as they could have no Power to touch the Life, which they did combine against.

And it was said to me, the last Beast that came with an open Mouth with a dark fume was in particular in great envy and rage, against the Life-Ministration opened in me, and would endeavour to cast forth his dark Venom, to cloud the Glory of it, and doth hereunto daily watch. Upon which I was cautioned by the Spirit, that we were evermore to keep, within the Circle-Light, where the Oyl of the Unction will be still dropping, against which no Poyson of this kind shall be hurtful.

Then also this Word of direction was given for my Friend, that the Love that hath restrained these Powers of darkness, though through a Veil of blackness and temptation, yet the sense of the Bridegrooms espousal Love might evermore have a mighty force, and constraint to live up to every dedicated vow. For they now stand recorded in God's roll, and it will be our Joy for to perform them. So that the great Apollyon may have no Power to circumvent, or by any instrument to come into our inward Tent. Where let us take all advice and counsel only with the Spirit, then we shall still foresee all of Evil.

---

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/jane-lead/february-17-1678-the-interpretation-of-the-dream/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

---

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net