

July 20. 1678. the Patience of Faith.

by Jane Lead

The sermon emphasizes the importance of patience in faith, trusting in the Lord's timing and provision, even when we don't see immediate results.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 4:2

Topics: "Faith And Patience", "Gods Providence"

Description

Jane Lead preaches about the importance of patience and faith in God's timing, emphasizing the stewardship of spiritual treasures that are being cultivated and refined during seasons of testing and growth. She encourages the congregation to trust in God's wisdom and kindness, even when it seems like blessings are delayed, knowing that a time of abundant increase will come for rejoicing in the Lord's provision.

Transcript

This Word came to me, Be not over hasty, so long as Faith's Evidence is with you. Ye have a faithful Steward, that is Day by Day stirring up the more choice and excellent Substance, which is laid up during the time and season which is necessary for Probation. But know after this purifying Season, it will be given in with great encrease, that so ye may rejoice, and say, the Lord is wise, and kind though he keepeth for a time the Life's Revenue in his own hand.
