

The Spirit of Egypt - Part 4

by Joshua Daniel

The sermon warns against the spirit of Egypt, which prioritizes material prosperity and external success over spiritual authenticity and inner work, leading to spiritual death and fading spiritual life.

Duration: 5:01

Scripture: Proverbs 4:23, Matthew 6:24, Galatians 6:7-8, James 4:4, 1 John 2:15-17

Topics: "Materialism", "Spiritual Growth"

Description

This sermon warns against the dangers of succumbing to the spirit of Egypt, symbolizing a focus on earthly prosperity and materialism that leads to spiritual death. It emphasizes the need to examine one's heart and motives, especially for preachers and those in fellowship, to avoid falling into the trap of seeking big showy things over true spiritual growth and authenticity.

Transcript

Soon she begins to accuse her husband. Hey, you hate me because I am short. So any short stature which tends to be short in a bride bride does not like that look, as high a heel as she can get for the marriage march.

Well, listen friends, are you a shrinking bride or an expecting bride? I am busy fading that wonderful day. See, I see in hearts, in sections of this fellowship. The spirit of Egypt getting into the preachers themselves.

They like the big paychecks of their children. And the result is spiritual death. Oh my dear brothers and sisters, the spirit of Egypt shall find its God.

And today, we see all eyes focused on the spirit of apparent earthly prosperity. But I am very afraid of that. I am not enamored of big halls, big show, big things.

Am I clean before God? What kind of work is going on in that city? It is a showy city full of glamour and glitter. And you are living in that city. And soon that spirit comes into the preachers in that city.

And into the fellowship. But the music continues and the work goes on. Great crowds come.

But the seed of failure and the verdict of failure is there. The spirit of Egypt shall fade. I stopped and pondered and meditated.

What are you when you have a failing spirit? You know what my diagnosis is? My disease is?
