

Abiding In The Glory Of God

by Keith Malcomson

This sermon emphasizes the importance of living in the light of God's glory rather than seeking earthly comforts. It warns against growing cold and lacking spiritual nourishment when not abiding in God's presence. The message highlights how God's glory, represented by the cloud in the wilderness, provides protection, sustenance, and transformation into the likeness of Christ through the Holy Spirit.

Scripture: Exodus 16:4, Exodus 13:21, 2 Corinthians 3:18, Psalm 91:1, 1 Corinthians 10:4

Topics: "Living in God's Glory", "Spiritual Nourishment"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the importance of living in the light of God's glory rather than seeking earthly comforts. Transcript

But if you set your heart upon the oasis and do not live in the light of God's glory, you yourself, you will be unprotected and have no covering from the enemy. Your heart will begin to grow cold for there is no fire where you're abiding. There'll be no substance because no manna falls there.

The cloud is where the manna falls. The water flows out of the rock and the fire begins to burn in the darkness of night. The cloud is our covering in the midst of the wilderness.

It is God's glory. It is the glory that changes us from one degree of glory to another into the likeness of Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit.
