Transcript

A patient person. She never moved until bread came. When she's in Moab, all the pressures, the darkness, the troubles, the tragedy, it didn't move her.

You see, I believe Naomi is a patient person. She was the embodiment of a godly woman who had patience. She may not have been happy, she wasn't shouting, she wasn't singing, but she was a woman who kept in the situation.

All hell could not move her from the position she was in. So all these tragedies come, she stays in Moab. You know what a lot of Christians, they move, they change.

There's no consistency. There's no patience. Every time something happens the will of God changes in their life.

They think about the will of God. They change the direction of life. You'll never accomplish anything, I want to tell you.
