

You are not born again unless there is a changed nature

by Keith Malcomson

This sermon emphasizes the importance of true regeneration in a believer's life, highlighting that being a new creature in Christ involves a transformed nature and lifestyle. It challenges the notion that continuing in sinful behaviors like sexual immorality and blasphemy is incompatible with genuine regeneration.

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 5:17, Galatians 5:24, Ephesians 4:22, Colossians 3:9

Topics: "True Regeneration", "Transformation in Christ"

Transcript

If they're sleeping around with their girlfriend and blaspheming and carrying on, they're not a new creature. It hasn't happened. What is real regeneration? It's a new creation within an individual.

You're not born again unless there is a changed nature.
