

Did You Come To Meet God This Morning

by Leonard Ravenhill

This sermon emphasizes the need for a return to recognizing the holiness of God, highlighting the loss of reverence even within the church. It challenges the congregation to reflect on whether they attend church to truly encounter God or simply to hear about Him, urging them to seek a deep, transformative experience with God that leaves them speechless.

Scripture: Isaiah 6:3, Psalm 99:9, Hebrews 12:28, Exodus 3:5, Psalm 46:10, Habakkuk 2:20

Topics: "Holiness of God", "Transformative Worship"

Preaching with a punch, preaching with authority. The tragedy of modern Christianity is this, we've lost, even in the church, we've lost our sense of the holiness of God. Come on, be honest, don't answer all people.

Did you come here to meet God this morning? Or did you come to hear a sermon about Him? Can you remember the last time you left the sanctuary and you didn't utter a word for an hour or two? That happened in the Welsh Revival, I didn't witness it, but I did preach in some of the Revival churches or churches that had Revival as a...
