Description

This sermon emphasizes the awe-inspiring encounter with Jesus, highlighting the overwhelming sense of reverence and fear that will accompany seeing Him face to face. It underscores the need for a transformed, glorified body and mind to withstand the presence of Jesus, contrasting the casual attitude often portrayed in songs and popular culture with the profound reality of encountering the Savior.

Transcript

And when I hear people singing, you know, put your hand in the hand of him that walks on the water, forget it. For the new son that's out, shake hands with Jesus. Listen, when you see Jesus, you're not going up and say, hey buddy, I'm glad you died for me.

When you see Jesus, you'll be almost paralyzed with fear, unless you have a glorified body and a glorified mind.
