

Give A Year Of Your Life To Seeking The Lord For Oil

by Malachi O'Brien

This sermon emphasizes the worthiness of Jesus, the Lamb that was slain, highlighting that all authority, power, glory, and dominion belong to Him. It challenges the listener to surrender all rights to Jesus and live solely to serve Him, not seeking personal gain or recognition. The message underscores the sacrificial nature of following Christ, requiring a willingness to give up everything for His sake, even if it doesn't make sense.

Scripture: Revelation 5:12, Philippians 2:9, Galatians 2:20, Matthew 16:24, Mark 8:34

Topics: "Worthy is the Lamb", "Total Surrender to Christ"

Transcript

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain. All authority and power and glory and dominion belongs to Him. I have no right to my rights, they all belong to Him.

I am a dead person. And I'm just one to live to give Him oil. I'm not living to get selfies, I'm living to give oil.

I'm not living for any other thing or person than the man Christ Jesus. He's worthy. To have oil takes fire, takes heat, takes death, takes time.

But Jesus is worthy. It might take a year of your life. Mary gave a year of her life.

Do that sacrifice. Give it. Give it.

Give it. It doesn't make sense. Give it.
