

Loving Jesus In Secret And Not Seeking Self Promotion

by Malachi O'Brien

This sermon emphasizes the need for a fresh start in faith, moving away from traditional practices and denominations to a new, revitalized relationship with God. It encourages a deep appreciation for spiritual renewal after experiencing lack or dry seasons. The message urges believers to express their love for God, seek His guidance, and be willing to sacrificially serve without seeking recognition, focusing solely on glorifying Jesus.

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 5:17, James 4:8, Matthew 6:3, Matthew 6:6, John 3:30, Philippians 2:3, 1 Corinthians 10:31, Matthew 23:12

Topics: "Spiritual Renewal", "Sacrificial Service"

But it's not gonna run again through tradition or denominations or anything else. It's gonna run with a new engine with new oil. You appreciate oil a whole lot more when you've gone through a season when you didn't have it.

Now you want to make sure you don't that doesn't happen to you again. So I'm gonna hand the mic over to DR. But I want you to stay where just you leave when you leave, but just tell him you live. You don't even know to say tell him you love him.

Pray in the Spirit. Just pour your love out to him. Ask him for tears.

Say, Lord, what do you want me to give? I'll give my life for the nations. I'll give my life for my kids. I'll give my life for the next generation, and it'll be in secret.

No one will know, but you'll know and it's worth it. It's you Jesus. It's always been you.

No more Judas. It's gonna be Jesus. I don't need the glory.

Jesus deserves it. We cast that Judas out of the church and every church in America that wants glory for themselves. Every ministry and preacher that wants them to be famous and not Jesus, up and out in Jesus name.
