

Where Are The Anna's On the Earth

by Malachi O'Brien

This sermon emphasizes the importance of humility, prayer, and seeking God's face rather than seeking recognition or platforms. It calls for individuals to be like Annas, dedicated to a life of prayer and burning for the Lord. The message encourages young people to have a burning desire for Jesus above all else and highlights that deliverance comes through prayer, fasting, and humility.

Scripture: Matthew 6:6, Luke 18:10, Mark 9:29, James 4:10

Topics: "Humility", "Devotion to Prayer"

Transcript

It's not about who gets on a platform. It's about who gets under the platform, in the place of prayer, seeking the face of God. Where are the Annas on the earth? Where are the men and women who will give their life burning forever for the Lord? And I say to every young person in this room, let your desire for greatness burn and let a hunger for Jesus burn brighter than ever.

If deliverance is the children's bread, and it is, then that bread is baked in the oven of prayer and fasting and is delivered on a plate of humility. Let's just...
