

Why Is Genuine Revival Important for the Church in our Generation■

by Mamdouh Riad

This sermon explores the motives for revival, focusing on the importance of seeking the glory of God and the salvation of souls. It emphasizes the zeal for God's house as seen in the lives of David and Jesus, highlighting the consuming passion for God's name. Revival is presented as the solution to the prevailing darkness in the nations, driven by a deep concern for the glory of God and the eternal destiny of souls.

Scripture: Psalm 69:9, John 2:17, 1 Corinthians 10:31, Matthew 28:19, Acts 1:8

Topics: "Revival", "Zeal for God's Glory"

Transcript

Martin Lloyd-Jones answered that question in an article titled Motives for Revival. The first reason is concern for the glory of God, for the name of the Lord himself. As David and Jesus both said, zeal for your house consumed me.

The second is concern for souls, concern for souls getting saved. So these are the two main reasons. Revival is the answer to the darkness that prevails in the nations.
