

All He Thinks Of

by Mary Wilder Tileston

The sermon emphasizes the infinite and intense love of God for us, and the hope set before us to enter into full sympathy with Him and receive His love.

Scripture: Psalm 103:11, Isaiah 54:10, Romans 8:38, 1 John 4:16

Topics: "Gods Love", "Spiritual Freedom"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the profound love of God towards us, emphasizing that dwelling in love means dwelling in God and having God dwell in us. She reflects on the transformative power of God's love, which brings forth a new world and sets us free. Tileston encourages embracing the hope and certainty of God's unfailing kindness and peace, even amidst the uncertainties of life.

Transcript

And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

I JOHN 4:16

As flame streams upward, so my longing thought

Flies up with Thee,

Thou God and Saviour, who hast truly wrought

Life out of death, and to us, loving, brought

A fresh, new world; and in Thy sweet chains caught,

And made us free!

MAURICE FRANCIS EGAN

WHAT a blessed and glorious thing human existence would be, if we fully realized that the infinitely wise and infinitely powerful God loves each one of us, with an intensity infinitely beyond what the most fervid human spirit ever felt towards another, and with a concentration as if He had none else to think of! And this love has brought us into being, just that we might be taught to enter into full sympathy with Him, receiving

His,--giving our own--thus entering into the joy of our Lord. This is the hope--the sure and certain hope--set before us,--sure and certain,--for "the mountains shall depart, and the hills be re-moved; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee."
