

Amidst the Circumstances

by Mary Wilder Tileston

The sermon emphasizes the importance of God's peace in our lives, especially amidst life's challenges, and how it can be actively cultivated through our relationship with Christ.

Scripture: Psalm 29:11, Isaiah 26:3, John 14:27, Philippians 4:7, Colossians 3:15

Topics: "Peace Of God", "Christian Living"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about finding the peace of God that surpasses all understanding, which will guard our hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. She emphasizes that this peace is not just for special moments but is available in the midst of life's challenges, uncertainties, and busyness. By staying connected to Christ and seeking His presence, we can experience and maintain this deep peace that keeps us alive, loving, practical, and ready to respond to God's call.

Transcript

The peace of God, which passeth all understand.ing, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

--PHILIPPIANS 4:7

I TAKE Thee for my Peace, O Lord,

My heart to keep and fill;

Thine own great calm, amid earth's storms,

Shall keep me always still,

And as Thy Kingdom doth increase,

So shall Thine ever.deepening peace.

--ANNIE W. MARSTON

REMEMBER this, busy and burdened disciple; man or woman tried by uncertain health; immersed in secular duties; forced to a life of almost ceaseless publicity. Here is written an assurance, a guarantee, that not at holy times and welcome intervals only, not only in the dust of death, but in the dust of life, there is prepared for you the peace of God, able to keep your hearts and thoughts in Christ Jesus. It is found in Him, it is cultivated by intercourse with Him. It is "the secret of His presence." Amidst the circumstances of your life, which are the expression of His will, He can maintain it, He can keep you in it. Nay, it is not passive; it "shall keep" you, alive, and loving, and practical, and ready at His call.
