

God Will Be Acknowledged

by Mary Wilder Tileston

The sermon emphasizes the importance of acknowledging God in all aspects of life, leading to a change of motive and dependence, and resulting in a life lived at ease in God's Presence and a greater sense of divine wisdom and resourcefulness.

Scripture: Proverbs 3:6, Proverbs 16:3, Romans 12:11, 1 Corinthians 10:31, Colossians 3:23

Topics: "Serving God", "Divine Guidance"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches on the importance of being diligent in our work, fervent in spirit, and serving the Lord in all aspects of our lives. She emphasizes the need to acknowledge God in everything we do, relying on His wisdom, strength, and guidance for the right execution of our tasks. Tileston highlights the transformation that occurs when our motives and dependence shift towards serving God, leading to a life lived in the presence of God with divine wisdom, efficiency, and abundance of resources.

Transcript

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord.

ROMANS 12:11

LET us begin from this moment to acknowledge Him in all our ways, and do everything, whatsoever we do, as service to Him and for His glory, depending upon Him alone for wisdom, and strength, and sweetness, and patience, and everything else that is necessary for the right accomplishing of all our living. It is not so much a change of acts that will be necessary, as a change of motive and of dependence. The house will be kept, or the children cared for, or the business transacted, perhaps, just the same as before as to the outward, but inwardly God will be acknowledged, and depended on, and served; and there will be all the difference between a life lived at ease in the glory of His Presence, and a life lived painfully and with effort apart from Him. There will result also from this bringing of God into our affairs a wonderful accession of divine wisdom in the conduct of them, and a far greater quickness and despatch in their accomplishment, a surprising increase in the fertility of resource, and an enlargement on every side that will amaze the hitherto cramped and cabined soul.
