

Love One Another With Broth-Erly Love

by Mary Wilder Tileston

We are called to love one another with the same love that Christ showed us, a love that forgives and overlooks our faults.

Scripture: John 13:34, Romans 12:10, Ephesians 4:32, 1 Peter 3:8, 1 John 4:7

Topics: "Brotherly Love", "Christian Compassion"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston, through the words of Arthur C. A. Hall and Arthur P. Stanley, emphasizes the importance of showing brotherly love, compassion, and courtesy towards one another. She encourages believers to let their faith transform them into considerate, loving, and attractive individuals who genuinely care for the well-being of others. The sermon highlights the unconditional love that Christ demonstrated by seeing and loving the good in everyone, despite their faults and differences, and challenges listeners to do the same, focusing on the positive aspects of those around them rather than magnifying weaknesses.

Transcript

Be kindly affectioned one to another with broth-erly love.

ROMANS 12:10

Love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous.

I PETER 3:8

LET your religion make you more considerate, more loving and attractive, more able to think of and enter into the pleasure and interests of others.

ARTHUR C. A. HALL

LOVE one another in spite of your differences, in spite of your faults. Love one another, and make the best of one another, as He loved us, who, for the sake of saving what was good in the human soul, for-got, forgave, put out of sight what was bad--who saw and loved what was good even in the publican Zac-cheus, even in the penitent Magdalen, even in the expiring malefactor, even in the heretical Samaritan, even in the Pharisee Nicodemus, even in the heathen soldier, even in the outcast Canaanite. It is very easy to fix our attention only on the weak points of those around us, to magnify them, to irritate them, to ag-gravate them; and, by so doing, we can make the burden of life unendurable, and can destroy our own and others' happiness and usefulness wherever we go. But this was not the love wherewith Christ loved us; this is not the new love wherewith we are to love one another.

ARTHUR P. STANLEY

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/mary-wilder-tileston/love-one-another-with-broth-erly-love/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net