

Trust the Creator

by Mary Wilder Tileston

Mary Wilder Tileston encourages listeners to trust God with everything, knowing that He will work everything out for their good.

Scripture: Proverbs 3:5, Isaiah 45:12, Ephesians 3:20, Philippians 2:13

Topics: "Faith And Trust", "Gods Sovereignty"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston, through the words of Hannah Whitall Smith, emphasizes the importance of trusting God completely in all aspects of our lives. Just as God upholds the suns and worlds, He also upholds us with His mighty hand, directing our times and ways. We are encouraged to trust God not only in small matters but in everything, knowing that His power exceeds all our expectations and that His will is always for our good.

Transcript

I have made the earth, and created man upon it; I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways.

ISAIAH 45:12,13

HE who suns and worlds upholdeth

Lends us His upholding hand;

He the ages who unfoldeth

Doth our times and ways command.

God is for us;

In His strength and stay we stand.

THOMAS H. GILL

YOU have trusted Him in a few things, and He has not failed you. Trust Him now for everything, and see if He does not do for you exceeding abundantly above all that you could ever have asked or thought, not according to your power or capacity, but according to His own mighty power, that will work in you all the good pleasure of His most blessed will. You find no difficulty in trusting the Lord with the management of the universe and all the outward creation, and can your case be any more complex or difficult than these, that you need to be anxious or troubled about His management of it?
