

How Much More With The Outpouring of the Holy Spirit

by Matt Brown

This sermon emphasizes the vastness of Jesus' works during His earthly ministry, suggesting that the world couldn't contain all the books if every detail was written down. It extends this idea to the present time, highlighting the continuous work of Jesus through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the church, urging listeners to be inspired by the ongoing work and glory of Jesus Christ on earth today.

Scripture: John 21:25, Acts 1:9, Acts 2:1, Ephesians 1:22, 1 Corinthians 12:27

Topics: "The Ongoing Work of Christ", "The Power of the Holy Spirit"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the vastness of Jesus' works during His earthly ministry, suggesting that the world couldn't contain all the books if every detail was written down. It extends this idea to the present time, highlighting the continuous work of Jesus through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the church, urging listeners to be inspired by the ongoing work and glory of Jesus Christ on earth today.

Transcript

John 21-25 breaks it down and he says this, Jesus did many things. If every one of the things that Jesus did was written down, the amazing things that he did, I suppose not even the whole world would have room to hold the books that could be written. That was in three years of Jesus's earthly ministry.

He did so much. You could not write it down in all the books and paper of the world. And how much more so with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as Jesus ascended the right hand of the Father and awaits that second coming, how much more through the church and through his people by his Holy Spirit is there to be stories of the work and the glory and the majesty of Jesus Christ and what he's doing on the earth today.

We need to be overcome and we need to be inspired this weekend.
