Transcript

As we behold his glory. And I just want to close with this. My encouragement you today is to focus on living in the abundance of the Spirit of God that's available to you.

This is my simple, my simple challenge. Live in the abundance of the Spirit and the glory of God. That's available to you.

And I just want to give you a few quick thoughts about that. This isn't another thing to add to your list. This is something when you live, beholding the glory of God, considering the glory of God, it will change your entire to-do list.

It will energize you. It will empower your life with a passion.
