Transcript

Oh, how dark is the sin of blasphemy. I think if God would not restrain the angels, every one of your co-workers who has ever blasphemed would die as quick as the blade of a cherubim could fly. Can you imagine the fierce anger of the angels of God towards those who blaspheme his holy name? They have loved their God for at least six thousand years.

How much do you think they would get angry if they see you blaspheme his holy name? And yet God restrains his anger. Perhaps many of us have been blasphemers in our words, have misused the name of God. God stood his angels back and he says, wait.

And the angel says, good, you're going to strike him down? That Paul there deserves the fiery strike of the Almighty. And God says, no, I'm going to send my son to die and receive that strike that he deserves so that Paul can go free.
