Duration: 0:56

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:1

Topics: "Honesty", "Honesty in Ministry", "Sincerity in Prayer"

Description

Richard Siple emphasizes the significance of honesty and sincerity in both ministry and prayer, urging believers to be genuine in their service to God. He reflects on the teachings from 2 Timothy 2, encouraging strength in grace and the importance of sharing the truth learned from faithful witnesses. Siple calls for a heartfelt approach to ministry, highlighting that sincerity in prayer and service is essential for effective ministry and spiritual growth.

Transcript

I'm going to begin in 2nd Timothy chapter 2, the first seven verses, and basically what I want us to think about together this morning is this matter of honesty or sincerity in our ministry. And I am going to focus a good bit on prayer, but on our ministry in general, and just talk to you out of my heart about it. 2nd Timothy 2, beginning with verse 1. Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus, and the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses.
