

Are There Few That Be Saved?

by Rolfe Barnard

Rolfe Barnard emphasizes the importance of entering through the straight gate and the role of God's mercy in salvation.

Duration: 34:54

Scripture: Luke 13:24-30

Topics: "Salvation Grace", "Repentance Faith"

Description

In this sermon, the speaker emphasizes the lack of vision among God's people when it comes to the need for salvation. He highlights the difficulty of living in a world where everyone is headed towards destruction. The speaker also mentions the scarcity of prayer and the absence of mercy being shown to sinful men in the present times. He emphasizes the importance of God's grace in enabling individuals to repent and believe in Jesus, stating that without it, they will never be able to do so.

Transcript

Let's read Luke's Gospel. Luke's Gospel, Chapter 13. I begin reading the verse 22.

And he went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem. Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he came to the end at the straight gate. To enter in.

How much in session. It may be more than I think. When I speak that there's not.

Who is ever able, will ever believe the Bible. Unless God. In mercy.

And there shall not be. A man can seek and not. Standing out by the canal.
