

We Believe That the Divine Presence Is Everywhere

by St. Benedict of Nursia

We are called to recognize and reverence the divine presence everywhere, especially in our worship, and to conduct ourselves with harmony and sincerity.

Scripture: Psalm 2:11, Psalm 46:7, Psalm 137:1, Proverbs 15:3, Colossians 3:16

Topics: "Gods Presence", "Worship Service"

Description

St. Benedict of Nursia emphasizes the omnipresence of God, reminding believers that the eyes of the Lord are watching over both the good and the evil at all times. He encourages unwavering faith in God's presence, especially during acts of worship and service. St. Benedict urges the congregation to serve the Lord with reverence and to sing praises wisely, acknowledging the presence of angels. He calls for a harmonious connection between the mind and voice during psalmody, highlighting the importance of conducting oneself in a manner pleasing to God and His heavenly beings.

Transcript

We believe that the divine presence is everywhere and that "the eyes of the Lord are looking on the good and the evil in every place" (Prov. 15:3). But we should believe this especially without any doubt when we are assisting at the Work of God. To that end let us be mindful always of the Prophet's words, "Serve the Lord in fear" (Ps. 2:11) and again "Sing praises wisely" (Ps. 46[47]:8) and "In the sight of the Angels I will sing praise to You" (Ps. 13[14]:7:1). Let us therefore consider how we ought to conduct ourselves in sight of the Godhead and of His Angels, and let us take part in the psalmody in such a way that our mind may be in harmony with our voice.
