

A Strong Tower

by Thomas Brooks

The Lord's name is a strong tower where the righteous can find safety and security.

Scripture: 2 Samuel 22:3, Psalm 18:2, Psalm 46:1, Psalm 62:6-7, Psalm 91:2, Proverbs 18:10, Isaiah 26:3, Nahum 1:7, Romans 8:31, Philippians 4:19

Topics: "Divine Protection", "Refuge in God"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes that the name of the Lord serves as an impenetrable strong tower for the righteous, providing safety and security against all forms of attack. He illustrates that God's strength is unmatched, being unassailable by any weapon, unreachable by any means, and unshakeable by any adversary. Those who seek refuge in this divine stronghold can rest assured of their safety and protection.

Transcript

"The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous run to it and are safe." Proverbs 18:10

God is . . .

so strong a tower that no cannon can pierce it,

so high a tower that no ladder can scale it,

so deep a tower that no subverter can undermine it.

Therefore they must needs be safe and secure--who lodge within a tower so impregnable, so indomitable.
