

I Have Seen Your Tears

by Thomas Brooks

God's people's tears have great power and can move God to action, as seen in Hezekiah's story.

Scripture: 2 Kings 20:1, 2 Kings 20:5, Psalm 56:8, Isaiah 38:5, Revelation 21:4

Topics: "God's Compassion", "The Power of Tears"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes the power of tears in the lives of God's people, illustrating how their heartfelt cries can move God to action. He reflects on the message from 2 Kings 20:1, where God instructs Hezekiah to set his affairs in order due to impending death, yet responds to Hezekiah's tears with healing and restoration. Brooks highlights that God sees and acknowledges our pain, promising hope and deliverance even in dire circumstances. The sermon encourages believers to bring their sorrows before God, trusting in His compassion and ability to heal.

Transcript

"This is what the Lord says--Set your affairs in order, for you are going to die. You will not recover from this illness." 2 Kings 20:1

The tears of God's people have such a kind of omnipotency in them, that God Himself cannot withstand them. "I have seen your tears.

I will heal you, and three days from now you will get out of bed and go to the Temple of the Lord." 2 Kings 20:5
