

The Only Happy Man in the World!

by Thomas Brooks

True happiness comes from having God as our God, our portion, and being His inheritance.

Scripture: Psalm 16:5, Psalm 144:15

Topics: "True Happiness", "God as Our Portion"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes that true happiness is found in having God as one's portion, as stated in Psalms 144:15. He explains that the happiness of those who belong to God is profound and beyond human comprehension, asserting that nothing can truly make a person miserable if God is their God. Brooks highlights that God is the source, giver, sustainer, and center of all true happiness, making those who possess Him the only truly happy individuals in the world.

Transcript

"Happy are the people whose God is the Lord." Ps. 144:15

All the happiness and blessedness of the people of God consists in this--that God is their God, and that He is their portion, and that they are His inheritance!

Oh, the heaped up happiness of those whose God is the Lord! The happiness of such is so great and so glorious--as cannot be conceived, as cannot be uttered!

Nothing can make that man truly miserable, who has God for his portion; nor can anything make that man truly happy, who lacks God for his portion.

God is the author of all true happiness.

God is the donor of all true happiness.

God is the maintainer of all true happiness.

God is the center of all true happiness and blessedness.

Therefore, he who has Him for his God, for his portion, is the only happy man in the world!

"Happy are the people whose God is the Lord." Ps. 144:15
