

Hyper Critical People Will Be Measured By Their Own Ruler

by Tim Conway

This sermon emphasizes the importance of not being overly critical and judgmental towards others, highlighting the principle that the measure we use to judge others will be used to judge us. It warns against being hypocritical, putting others to a standard we ourselves do not uphold, and reminds us that we will be measured by the same standard we apply to others.

Scripture: Matthew 7:1, Luke 6:37, Romans 2:1, James 4:11

Topics: "Judgment", "Hypocrisy"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the importance of not being overly critical and judgmental towards others, highlighting the principle that the measure we use to judge others will be used to judge us. It warns against being hypocritical, putting others to a standard we ourselves do not uphold, and reminds us that we will be measured by the same standard we apply to others.

Transcript

With the judgment you pronounce, you will be judged. And with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. Brethren, when you're always finding fault with others, you're a very critical person, constantly finding fault.

You may put on a good veneer here, but you walk out the door, when you're alone with your husband, alone with your wife, then your mouth rattles off. Constantly critical, constantly fault-finding, habitually putting others to a standard that you yourself don't hold. The Lord is saying, your end is going to be this one.

You're gonna in the end be measured by your own ruler. That's what he's saying. With the judgment you pronounce, you will be judged.

This short was taken from the full sermon, Judge Not, Lest You Be Judged, by Tim Conway.

Video: <https://sermonindex2.b-cdn.net/f8Bgzx5DY-w.mp4>

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/tim-conway/hyper-critical-people-will-be-measured-by-their-own-ruler/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net