

(Secrets of Victory) 13. the Secrets of Victory

by Zac Poonen

God wants to help us live in victory at all times, and He gives us commandments and helps us in trials because He loves us.

Scripture: Psalm 34:18, Matthew 11:28-30, John 15:9, Romans 8:28, 1 Corinthians 10:13, 2 Corinthians 12:9, Philippians 4:13, Hebrews 4:15, James 4:6, 1 Peter 5:6-7

Topics: "Victory in Christ", "Humility and Dependence on God"

Description

Zac Poonen emphasizes that God desires for us to live in constant victory, urging believers to trust in His love and commandments. He reassures that every trial serves a divine purpose and that God will not test us beyond our capacity. Jesus serves as the ultimate example of overcoming temptation without sin, and humility is essential to receive God's grace. Poonen encourages dependence on God as our sole helper and highlights the necessity of being broken to experience His power fully. Ultimately, he calls for a deep trust in God's control over our circumstances for our ultimate good.

Transcript

(A Summary)

God wants to help you to live in victory at all times. Believe this with all your heart.

God gives you commandments because He loves you. Therefore take each of them seriously.

God loves the disciples of Jesus as much as He loves Jesus. Find your security in this love.

Every trial has a Divine purpose. God will never allow you to be tempted or tested beyond your ability. Believe this with all your heart.

Jesus was tempted in every point exactly as we are. Yet He never sinned. Look at Him as your Example, when you are tempted.

God gives grace only to the humble. So take up the cross and humble yourself at all times.

God will control all your circumstances so that they work together for your very best. Believe this with all your heart.

Depend on God alone as your unfailing Helper in all situations. Ask Him to wean you away from dependence on anything or anyone else.

God can give His power only to the weak. So allow Him to break you and to reduce you to a 'zero-point'.
