

"Aspire to be something more than the mass of church members. Lift up your cry to God and beseech him to fire you with a nobler ambition than that which possesses the common Christian, that you may be found faithful unto God at the last, and may win many crowns for your Lord and Master, Christ."

-C.H. Spurgeon